Newton Community Pride Announces Community Micro Grant Recipients

Newton Community Pride (NCP) announces its community micro grant recipients for its fall 2022 grant cycle. “We are delighted and proud to offer financial support for local arts and culture events, service and beautification programs consistent with our mission.” stated Blair Lesser Sullivan, Executive Director of Newton Community Pride. “The seed money NCP provides is important to our community as it invigorates and culturally uplifts all who live, work and create here.” Lesser Sullivan added.

NCP’s fall community micro grant recipients include a multi-cultural dance performance by Andromeda Belly Dance, Don’t Forget Your Art! event in Auburndale, FenceART, Haiku Newton, an Interfaith Music Night of community & diversity at Trinity Parish of Newton Centre, Year of the Rabbit Lantern Celebration hosted by the Chinese Language School and Jamaal Eversley’s Slam Theatre. In addition, recipients include a service project by Service Stars after school program and two spring beautification projects including a container gardening program for residents at the Newton Housing Authority’s Horace Mann complex and an invasive pull and plantings by the Friends of Kennard Park.

Newton Community Pride is a 501c3 organization building community for all to enjoy through free arts and culture programming, public art, beautification projects and volunteerism. NCP will open another round of community micro grants on March 1, 2022. For more information, please see <https://newtoncommunitypride.org/micro-grant-program/>
