Newton Community Pride Announces September 2023 “Fall Village Concert Series”

Newton, MA--- Newton Community Pride (NCP) announces three weekend afternoon village concerts in Auburndale, Newtonville, and West Newton starting September 10 through September 23. All musical concert performances are free, accessible, and open for all to enjoy.

Now in its 3rd year, Newton Community Pride will bring a fall concert series to the city in small intimate settings for residents to gather in outdoor spaces with live music. Several talented singers, songwriters and musicians from Newton will be highlighted including The Nate Aronow Nextet, Afrika Gente and The Isabel Stover Jazz Quartet. “We are delighted to bring this year’s fall concert series to several villages across the city and are pleased to offer live music in Auburndale for the first time. We look forward to welcoming the fall season, enlivening our villages and building community with music and song”, stated Blair Lesser Sullivan, NCP Executive Director.

Newton Community Pride is a 501c3 non-profit, building community through arts and culture programming, public art, beautification projects and volunteerism. For more information and list of dates, locations and performers, visit www.newtoncommunitypride.org
